Are You Being Hurt at Home?

There is help and support for Warren residents.

The Warren Domestic Violence Task Force.

We are a community based group working to provide resources and counseling for Warren residents, and with the schools on the prevention of bullying and teen dating violence. We welcome all community members to monthly meetings at the Warren Senior Center, 6 p.m. the third Tuesday of each month.

If you would like to join the task force, or want more information, please email gbobin@pvpc.org or call 413-781-6045

For Support Group and Individual Advocacy

Contact Jackie @ Valley Human Services 413-967-6241

Free to Warren residents.

The advocate will meet in Warren upon request.

Ware and the Warren Domestic Violence Task Forces have established a community input line so that local residents (or others) can give feedback/advice/concerns to either Task Force by calling a local phone number and leaving a message. The number is #758-0605.
